The small business I chose is "Bliss n Care". It is a small company that delivers personal services like: massages, facials, body waxing, and other cosmetic services. The company is has a single owner who originally opened a salon in Manhattan. Now he has stores in all boroughs and New Jersey.

I think this company is successful because it offers many deals and provide excellent services. The employees are very knowledgeable and excellent at their craft. They provide excellent services and have good customer service. There is also a branch in every borough, which makes it easy for me to to obtain the services I need when and wherever I need them. I also think this company is successful because they offer many services in one location. If I want a massage with my wife, we can have one together. If my wife wants a facial while I receive my massage we can do it at the same time.

Do some research on the Web, newspapers, or magazine and find an article about a small business that has been mentioned because it was doing well.

What do you think made this business successful?
