Newark

536 Broad Street, Newark, NJ

Berkeley College's location in downtown Newark is a return to its roots in Essex County, where its first campus opened in 1931. The location—in the heart of the central business district across from Washington Park—is truly exceptional. It's also easily accessible from points in New Jersey and New York by an outstanding public transportation system, which includes trains, buses, the NJ Transit Light Rail (which stops right in front of the building), and the PATH system.

The Newark location is within walking distance of major employers, retailers, government offices, and cultural attractions. The Newark Museum, New Jersey Performing Arts Center, and the Newark Public Library are also near the Newark facility.
