MAJOR COURSES	Qtr. hrs. credit
BUS231 Business Law I	4

Provides students with detailed knowledge of the laws relating to contracts, commerce, property, sales, negotiable instruments, and employment. Students develop an awareness of business situations requiring legal counsel and a familiarization with the overall structure of the legal system.

LAW100 Introduction to Law and the American Legal System	4
---	---

Students will be introduced to the United States legal system. The structure and administration of the state and federal courts are examined as well as the function of the trial and appellate courts. The sources of law will be discussed, and procedural and substantive law distinguished. Students will be introduced to the legal principles of torts, contracts, criminal, civil, and property law.

LAW200 Legal Ethics and Professional Values	4
--	---

The course will introduce students to the defining ethical issues that lawyers and the legal community face in various practice settings. Topics will include access to justice; issues in the attorney-client relationship, such as competence, confidentiality, and conflict of interest; and ethics in particular context, such as criminal practice, government, and corporate law.

Prerequisite: LAW100 or BUS231 or JUS100

LAW210 Legal Research	4
------------------------------	---

Students will locate and identify primary and secondary sources of law using traditional and computer-assisted research techniques, including Lexis, Westlaw, and the Internet. Students will use the databases to formulate searches, retrieve and display documents, and validate findings.

Prerequisite: LAW100 or BUS231 or JUS100

LAW220 Writing for Legal Professionals	4
---	---

Students will structure and draft legal case briefs, opinion letters, and memoranda of law in a logical, clear, concise manner. The course will stress proper grammar, organization, legal citation, and ethical considerations in legal writing. The students will learn appropriate writing style and tone, adapting the style/tone based on purpose of document and audience. The students will learn the use of outlines and charts in preparing to write legal documents.

Prerequisites: LAW210, ENG106

LAW230 Civil Litigation	4
--------------------------------	---

Students will be introduced to the rules governing the civil litigation process in both the state and federal civil courts.

Topics will include all aspects of civil litigation, including preparation of pleadings, discovery methods, motion practice, trial documents, and the appellate process.

Prerequisite: LAW100 or BUS231

LAW310 Alternative Dispute Resolution 4

This course will explore the field of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) by exploring the various mechanisms utilized to resolve disputes, including mediation and arbitration; the advantages and disadvantages of utilizing ADR as opposed to litigation; as well as the types and subjects where ADR is commonly employed. Students will engage in role plays throughout the course to demonstrate their knowledge of the various ADR options.

Prerequisite: LAW100 or BUS231 or JUS100

LAW410 Constitutional Law 4

A survey of U.S. constitutional issues as primarily interpreted by the U.S. Supreme Court. Topics include issues of government structure, including the powers of the three branches of government and checks and balances; separation of powers in the federal and state governments; and individual liberties and civil rights, including First Amendment freedom of speech, assembly, and religion, as well as the Equal Protection Clause.

Prerequisite: LAW100 or BUS231 or JUS100

LAW420 Real Property Law 4

This course will allow students to learn and explore fundamental topics related to the petition, ownership, and transfer of real property interest. Topics will include closings of residential property real estate financing, including mortgages and insurance, foreclosure, and short sales. Through a simulated real estate closing exercise, students will relate theory to practice and demonstrate their knowledge of the topics studied.

Prerequisite: LAW100 or BUS231

LAW430 Advanced Legal Research, Writing, and Advocacy 4
