Tuition Refund Policy

If a student officially withdraws or is dismissed from the College during a semester, credit for that semester will be issued as follows:

Notification date during

- First through third weeks 90%
- Fourth week 50%
- Fifth through seventh weeks 25%
- After the seventh week 0%

A student’s enrollment status is determined at the end of the add/drop period (week two). At that time the student is charged, and any financial aid is paid, based on the student’s enrollment status. (Individual course drops after week two do not entitle the student to a refund for that course.) Students wishing to withdraw after the start of a semester should contact the School of Graduate Studies.

Students who withdraw from the College prior to the end of the semester will have their financial aid adjusted based on the date that the student officially (or unofficially based on one of three census dates) withdrew from the College. Students who cease attendance but do not officially withdraw may be liable for 100 percent of charges for the semester. Eligibility for disbursement of federal funds will be recalculated in accordance with federal regulations. Refunds will be made in accordance with the federal refund allocation schedule.
