

LEGAL STUDIES CAREER PATHS – School of Professional Studies

Legal Studies in Business - Businesses and organizations of all kinds face legal issues in their day-to-day operations. In addition to the law firms and attorneys they depend on, opportunities for legal professionals exist in many other areas of business. Businesses depend on numerous types of support professionals, including paralegals and administrative personnel, as well as those who perform research, analysis, and consulting duties in both corporate and court-related environments.

Major Electives

LAW3310 Alternative Dispute Resolution
 LAW3335 Business Organizations and Corporations

Free or Liberal Arts Electives

ENG2265 Business Communication
 BUS2210 Business Intelligence and Analytics
 BUS2231 Business Law I
 BUS3331 Business Law II

Law School - In addition to the many career opportunities that exist in the legal professions, many students hope to pursue a career practicing law as a corporate or private attorney. Attorneys work for all types of organizations as well as in private practice. A number of elective courses provide an excellent foundation for the rigor of law school studies.

LAW3310 Alternative Dispute Resolution
 LAW3320 Constitutional Law
 LAW3335 Business Organizations and Corporations

JUS2201 Criminal Procedure
 JUS2240 Justice and the Judiciary
 SOC3310 Intercultural Communication

Under certain circumstances the need to take developmental College Skills courses may lengthen the time required to complete the student's program, and may result in increased costs to a student.

For more information about Berkeley College graduation rates, the median debt of students who completed programs, and other important disclosures, please visit BerkeleyCollege.edu/gainful-employment/bs_justice_studies_criminal_justice_nj_statistics.htm and BerkeleyCollege.edu/gainful-employment/bs_justice_studies_criminal_justice_ny_statistics.htm.

Career Paths are not minors or concentrations and will not be noted on a student's transcript or diploma. Career Paths are suggested electives to fill elective credits.