The Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund ("HEERF") established in accordance with Section 18004 of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security ("CARES") Act, the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act ("CRRSAA"), and the American Rescue Plan ("ARP") allows institutions of higher education to provide an emergency financial aid grant from the HEERF to students for expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus (including eligible expenses under a student's cost of attendance, such as food, housing, course materials, technology, healthcare, and child care).

We are pleased to advise you that you are eligible for a HEERF award. You must submit this Response Form no later than April 1, 2022, in order to be eligible for this award.

Please go to the Berkeley College website for details on how you we determined your eligibility and other frequently asked questions (can put link here as soon as FAQs has been updated)

Please select one of the options in the dropdown list below:

Your current open balance is:

If you have any questions about your refund you may contact Student Accounts at saonline@berkeleycollege.edu.

If you have any questions about this form, please contact Financial Aid at studentfinance@berkeleycollege.edu.

IMPORTANT RULE - EFFECTIVE December 27, 2020 a student may select to have their grant applied directly to an open balance they have with the College. The grant is not contingent on selecting this option. If you authorize the College to apply the grant to your account, then the College will do so. If not, you will receive the grant via BankMobile as described above. If the grant is larger than the balance, the College will apply the grant to your account and then issue the remainder as a refund. If you choose this option, please check off the box below:

- I authorize Berkeley College to retain my grant to cover my existing account balance and/or my balance due for the Winter 2022 semester. I understand that if the grant is larger than the balance, the College will apply the grant to my account and then issue the remainder as a refund. I further understand that I am not required to complete this authorization to receive a grant.
