

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS CAREER PATHS – Larry L. Luing School of Business

Business Analytics - Business analysts, often called management consultants, propose ways to improve an organization's efficiency. They advise managers on how to make organizations more profitable through reduced costs and increased revenues. Typical tasks for business analysts include:

- Gathering, organizing, and analyzing information
- Interviewing personnel and conducting observations to determine methods, equipment, and personnel that will be needed
- Developing solutions or alternative practices, as well as recommending new systems, procedures, or organizational changes

Under certain circumstances the need to take developmental College Skills courses may lengthen the time required to complete the student's program, and may result in increased costs to a student.

Not all programs and courses are offered at all campuses. You may be required to take some courses at another campus or online.

For more information about Berkeley College graduation rates, the median debt of students who completed programs, and other important disclosures, please visit BerkeleyCollege.edu/gainful-employment/aas\_international\_business\_nj\_statistics.htm and BerkeleyCollege.edu/gainful-employment/aas\_international\_business\_ny\_statistics.htm.

Career Paths are not minors or concentrations and will not be noted on a student's transcript or diploma. Career Paths are suggested electives to fill elective credits.
